Chairman’s letter

Dear Members,

It doesn’t seem possible that it was four years ago that many of us were volunteers or officials at at London 2012. I am sure that if you were there working or as a spectator that you have some great memories. BVF wishes GBR fencers Richard Kruse, Lawrence Halsted, James Davis and Marcus Mepstead the best of luck at the Olympics in Rio and the same to GBR wheelchair fencers Piers Gilliver and Dimitri Coutya at the Paralympics.

The Age Groups took place in June and were well attended. Thanks to Team Event Manager Marcia Stretch, DT - John Crouch, John Mason and Moya McNamara, armourers Peter and Janet Huggins, all referees and volunteers for an excellently run and enjoyable event. I was sorry that I could not be there for the first day of competition or the dinner but it was a pleasure to present medals on the second day.

The GBR squad list for the World Championships which are being held in Stralsund, Germany in October is in this newsletter. Congratulations to all.

Several Vets headed to Malta for the annual Malta Open competition and got some good results. There are two reports in this newsletter. There have also been some good results for Vets in Open competitions. It is great to see that Vets are competing successfully against younger fencers. A force to be reckoned with!

Ireland’s Veterans Committee hosted the 7th Celtic Challenge at Dublin City University at the end of July and what a great event it was. Friendly, efficient and well fought with a superb gala dinner followed by Irish music and dancing with a chance to join in with the professional Riverdance cast dancers. Fabulous! Thank you to our Irish hosts.

The committee is currently deliberating on selection, competition format and ranking and an announcement will be made soon.

Sincerely,

Gillian Aghajan

New BVF Merchandise

Following the success of our new tracksuits and ET16 merchandise there is a now a new range of BVF merchandise in a choice of colours, designed by Anne Mills. The way to it is to go to www.topkit.co select Clubs and Events and click on the BVF button (yes, you have your very own button!)

A letter from Henry

Dear Gillian,

History of the NVA

March 8th 1995 - A discussion with Bobby Winton and Nick Halsted - we decline to allow the AFA to put an input in the Vets Team selection which in accordance with the AFA’s constitution it had the right to do so. As I was not on the board therefore I would have no say if the Vets were affiliated and the Vets would be left in the hands of the board. Richard Coles was asked by the board to resolve the matter. (They did not write to me.) There could have been no committee member on the board and they would also determine how we organised our events e.g. Nationals and Internationals. It was suggested by both Bobby Winton and Nick Halsted that it was best to run our own affairs which we have done since.

May 7th 1994 - Training day under Jim Philbin
Malcolm Fare was there early to meet Henry -5 minutes late. Hilary was the stooge and remarked that she hadn’t worked that hard in the National Squad. Tactics, analysis and awareness were the chief items of the day.

Epée training day under John Llewelyn
Bill and Jenny Osbaldeston travelled up from Cornwall. A total of seven members turned up. Hilary won the Ladies Triathlon.
Commonwealth Team was cancelled because members didn’t want to fence the Vets before they went to Canada. Team Spirit!!
John Crouch debuted for the Vets International Team in men’s foil in Bath, v Germany as did John Payne and Hilary Cawthorne (Philbin). Great Britain won.

Yours sincerely,

Henry de Silva

The Malta Open - Exceptional in more than one way!

In The Sword last year we commented on how the Malta Open is an exceptional competition in that while limited in numbers it attracts fencers from many different nations. This year it proved to be exceptional in another way. Two months before the event it was fully subscribed and we had regrettably to turn entries away. Now compare that with the scene in the UK, where 14 days before, organisers are having sleepless nights with just a handful of entries! In Malta we ended with 15 different nations and managed to accommodate 37 entries in the Men’s Epee, even though we were limited to just 4 pistes.

From GB there were the highest number of entries for 15 years with a total of 26. Harry Peck (Brixton) for the 2nd year running won the Men’s Epee followed by Max Milner (entered as from Ireland being at Dublin Uni, but wearing GB stripes!) in 2nd. In 6th place was Seb Lee from Plymouth Uni and then we come to the vets with Mike Bradbury in 12th and Jim Pilkington at 15th.

In Men’s Foil, Max Woollard (Salle Paul) took the trophy and this is first time for 10 years that it has been won by a GB fencer, with the other Max from Dublin in 2nd place, followed by McKinley Bex (Salle Paul) in 3rd. Best vets were Nick Woollard (13th) and Dave Atkins (14th).

The best GB entrant in Men’s Sabre was a Vet! Dave Atkins at equal 3rd having had a disastrous poule, ranked 15th but took out number 2, Neboj Sreckovic (Serbia) in a closely fought fight by 15/13. Fencing apart, the highlight of the Men’s Sabre was the final with David Taylor (NZ) performing a traditional haka in place of a customary salute. It didn’t quite subdue his Italian opponent Filippo Carlucci though, who won 15/11.

From GB in Women’s Foil and Epee we just had youngsters. In foil Katie Work (3rd), Kyle Abay (5th); in Epee, Anna Hills (8th) and Siobhan Regan (14th), all of them from Lancaster University, ably captained by Owen Birch (17th in Men’s Epee).

So the message for next year if you wish to take part in this enjoyable event is put in your entry early in 2017 (you will get cheaper flights as well). Dates are 17th to 19th June. Further detail on flights and accommodation etc will appear on the Salago website.

Jim Pilkington

June this year saw the 19th annual Malta Open, hosted by St Paul Fencing Club. What started as a ‘friendly’ between Maltese and British fencers has grown into a well-known open, this year attracting fencers of 15 nationalities from USA to NZL. Great Britain was the largest contingent with 25 fencers in total. Juan Formosa, President of SPFC describes the competition as a club level competition with an international flavour, however the standard of fencing has increased year on year to a very high level.

This year saw veterans entries from Great Britain, Italy, Hungary, USA, Macedonia and Serbia with GBR vets Jim Pilkington, David Taylor, Dave Atkins, Mike Bradbury, Anthony Conyard, Nick Woollard, Kevin Alexander and Michael Bex making the trip to Malta. (Kevin Alexander made the trip but did not fence due to injury) (Sorry if I have missed anyone out!)

Day one, Saturday 18th June
Men’s Foil was dominated by Salle Paul fencers with Max Woollard taking first place after beating Brit Maxton Milner, representing Dublin University, 15-12. Third place went to Salle Paul’s Mckinley Bex and USA veteran Jamie Douraghy. GBR veterans Anthony Conyard and Nick Woollard, both of them also of Salle Paul, also had good placings at 7th and 13th. Women’s foil did not feature any GBR veterans. GBR’s best placing was Katie Work from Lancaster University who took bronze in a competition dominated by the Italian veteran Martina Ganassin who took gold after beating Malta’s Michelle Falzon.

Day two, Sunday 19th June
GBR also won men’s epee with Brixton’s Harry Peck winning it for the second consecutive year after beating Maxton Milner 15-10. Veterans Mike Bradbury and Jim Pilkington both had a good showing placing 12th and 15th in a competition of 36 fencers. In Women’s epee Anna Hills got the best pacing for GBR in 8th place in a competition which featured five Hungarian veterans including current Veterans world champion Ibolya Hoffmann. Ibolya had to contend with second place with the young Italian Isabella Ambrosi claiming gold.

Sabre was probably the keenly fought completion featuring veterans from GB, Italy, Austria, New Zealand, USA, Serbia, Macedonia and Malta. GBR’s Dave Atkins, last year’s runner up, came close again taking bronze after beating Veteran Serbian sabreur Nebojsa Sreckovic. He however succumbed to British based, Dave Taylor, who was flying the Kiwi colours in the semi-final. The final was the highlight of the weekend with Dave performing a Haka before the final began. (A video clip of the Haka is on The Malta Open Fencing Championship Facebook group - https://www.facebook.com/dave.atkins.9693/videos/559965970856867/ ) However it was the Italian Veteran Filippo Carlucci, World champion in 2014, who prevailed with a 15-11 win.
The Malta Open also is renowned for its team events in foil and epee. The Brits did well in the team foil on Saturday with Salle Paul’s team featuring the young Max Woollard, Mckinley Bex and veteran Michael Bex taking gold, and team Devon, featuring Dave Atkins, Seb Lee and Alex Scott taking bronze.

In team epee on the Monday GBR teams featuring veteran Jim Pilkington with Lancaster University fencers Anna Hills and Siobhan Regan, were eliminated in the quarter finals. GBR’s Harry Peck, having Maltese ancestry was entered in Maltese team St Paul Fencing Club featuring also Andrei Azzopardi and Valeria Lakhitkova. He and his team mates took silver losing to Hungarian team Telki SE.
